Dear Students, Parents and Guardians,

2019 Junior (Year 5 & 6) da Vinci Decathlon

I am pleased to advise you that your child has been selected as one of our school's representatives in the 2019 Junior da Vinci Decathlon. This event is to be held at Winthrop Hall, University of Western Australia on Monday October 21.

The da Vinci Decathlon is an annual academic inter-school event for 32 invited schools. Throughout the day the students will be participating in various sessions. The sessions involve tasks in; English, Mathematics, Science, Engineering, Cartography, Code breaking, Philosophy, General knowledge, Creative producing and Art and poetry. Being selected for this event is a great opportunity and will allow our students to interact with Years 5 and 6 students from other schools and to compete in an academic inter-school event.
