

Reference Standards

(For all assignments at St Joseph's School, Northam)

Author surname, (comma) initials. (with a full stop) date, (comma) Title (italics), (comma) Publisher, (comma) placed published, (comma) page numbers

Murphy, G. (2010), Mars: A Survival Guide, HarperCollins Publishers, Sydney, Australia, p. 60-64.

Examples of Reference Entries for Other Resources

If there are two authors-then the format below (alphabetical surnames):

Evergreen, M. & Lofts, G. (2011), Science Quest 7, John Wiley & Sons Australia Ltd, Brisbane, Australia, p. 182-187.

If there are multiple authors-then the format below (Alphabetical surnames):

Atkinson, A., Cohen, B., Conti, L., Loreck, T., Szczecinski, S., & Weigand, K. (2006), Society & Environment 1 (2nd ed.), Pearson Education Australia, Melbourne, Australia, p. 53.

Using a multimedia CD-ROM to look up orchids:

Orchids, (1997)[CD-ROM], Encyclopaedia of Nature, DK Multimedia, London.

Using a general printed encyclopaedia to look up possums:

Possums, (1998), World Book Encyclopaedia, World Book, Chicago. p.427.

Using the Internet:

If author identified:

Watson, Fred (2013), Fred Watson: Illuminating the Universe. Retrieved from <http://www.fredwatson.com.au/> on 25 November 2013.

If no author identified:

International Centre for Radio Astronomy Research. (2013). Galaxy assembly and evolution. Retrieved from <http://www.icrar.org/> on 26 November 2013.

Using a newspaper or magazine article

Nally, J. (2013), 'Galactic Ghosts', Cosmos: The Science of Everything, Issue 51, Jun/Jul 2013, p. 29-35.

Using a brochure

'Why do we spend tax dollars on space?' (2002), Kennedy Space Centre, NASA

(DVD) Recording

Pompeii: The last day [DVD] (2004), BBC Worldwide Ltd., United Kingdom.

Please note-All items are always listed in order alphabetically.